	The FoE Self-Study leadership team and subcommittees will complete the dimensional self-study in a timely manner.	All established target dates for completion of survey and self-study tasks will be met.	100% of the self-study tasks will be completed according to the established timeline.	The tasks were completed during March 2009, which was according to the timeline.	Move on to the phase of implementing the recommendations made by the self-study committees
	The dimensional self-study results will be consolidated and a comprehensive plan for interventions will be developed.	The plan for improvement and interventions will be developed.	The plan will have recommendations for improvement and suggestions for forming committees to implement the recommendations.	A new plan was developed, which includes the following initiatives: implementing changes to the orientation program for new students, the creation of a new program called the Common Experience Program for first-year students, and the creation of a Student Educational and Leadership Speaker Series that will target first-year students.	Provide leadership and fiscal resources to implement the recommended programs.
	The FoE leadership team will form taskforces to implement the interventions.	Taskforces will be formed to implement the recommendations.	As many taskforces as needed will be formed.	A taskforce has been developed to implement the Common Experience Program. The taskforce currently includes the College Success, Development Studies, and Student Life departments, but eventually more departments will be invited to participate.	Implement the Common Experience Program based on the taskforce recommendations.
